Epsilon Sigma Omicron (ESO)

In 1980 a small group of energetic, community and service-oriented women founded the Temecula Valley Woman's Club. The Club was chartered as a CFWC/GFWC that same year and incorporated in 1981. The Club is committed to improving the educational, ethical, and cultural life of the community.

Project Title: Epsilon Sigma Omicron (ESO) Hours: 766 Donated: $ 0 In Kind: $0

One of the goals of the TVWC is for its members to enhance their education and knowledge of the world. Members do this through Epsilon Sigma Omicron (ESO), a structured reading program that members complete on their own. Members pledge to make a commitment to read a wide variety of subjects. For the year 2024, we had 13 members. Meetings were held informing member's ways to more easily to complete their report. The members read more than 766 hours on many different topics. One member achieved Membership Status, one member achieved Torch Status, and one member achieved the 3rd Century Status.
