Since 1908, Beaumont Woman's Club has been nestled in the valley of the San Gorgonio Mountain Pass. The city of Beaumont is known for its mountain views and its residents for their hard-working pioneer spirit. Beaumont Woman's Club still demonstrates that pioneer spirit to this day and has always been actively involved with our community through our community service projects. Some of our projects include supporting the library, the military, and helping a local charity feed the hungry with needed donations of food. We are a diverse group with several members in their nineties to younger employed members. Each member brings with them that pioneer spirit that keeps the Beaumont's Woman's Club a vital member of the community. Our motto is "Crowned by Service".

Project: Keurig Coffee Maker for the Library Hours 2 Donated $171 In-Kind $0

We were informed that our local library would like to have a Keurig Coffee Maker for the staff. The library has been very kind to us by allowing us to meet there when our regular venue was unavailable. We bought a large Keurig Coffee Maker to thank the library staff for their kindness.

Project: Ice Cream for Teachers Hours 2 Donated $0 In-Kind $60

We combined a small Ice-Cream Social fundraiser with our appreciation for our local teachers. We made up flyers for our Ice-Cream Social that included "Teachers eat for free." We distributed our flyers in all our usual social media pages and placed it in a local online newspaper. We gave them three scoops of ice cream (their choice of chocolate, vanilla, strawberry or a combination of the three) with toppings of nuts, cherries, whipped cream, chocolate chips, sprinkles and bananas. Sadly, we did not get an onslaught of teachers in attendance but we did get a few teachers. One of the local art teachers enjoyed a free bowl of ice cream and decided to join our club after learning more about us.

Project: Really Loud Librarians Game Hours 5 Donated $0 In-Kind $0

At a meeting held at our local Library, we played the Really Loud Librarians Game. It is a fast-paced word game that involves shouting out words from a category that start with a letter on a racetrack. We all learned some new facts and had a wonderful time.
